WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS STUDY?

You are invited to participate in a research study that examines self-perceptions, emotions, and behaviors of individuals with mental health concerns. You were selected as a possible participant because of you are a member of the University of South Dakota campus community.

The purpose of this research study is to (a) explore how individuals with mental health concerns perceive themselves and (b) assess relationships between mental health symptoms and behavior.

HOW MANY PEOPLE WILL PARTICIPATE?

Approximately 400 individuals will take part in this study.

HOW LONG WILL I BE IN THIS STUDY?

Your participation in the study will last approximately 30 minutes. You will need to visit the study website one time.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN DURING THIS STUDY?

All parts of the study are presented online at the secure study website, www.MyMindfulDays.com. First, you will be asked to review the Informed Consent document (this form) and provide your consent to participate in the study. If you consent, you will complete a screening survey that asks about anxiety, depression, and alcohol use. If you meet the screening criteria, you will complete additional survey questions that ask about your personal characteristics (e.g., age; relationship status), history of mental health treatment, self-perceptions, and various behavioral processes. Upon completion of the study, you will have the option to submit your usd.edu email address to receive SONA credit and be entered into a raffle.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS OF THE STUDY?

There is some risk from being in this study. Some questions may be of a sensitive nature, such as those about suicide, and therefore you may become upset as a result. We have no way of connecting your survey responses to your identity so the researchers cannot help you if you are at risk of harming yourself. Please use the following resources if you would like to talk to someone.

The University of South Dakota's Student Counseling Center at 605-677-5777, provides counseling services to students at no charge. Also, The University of South Dakota's Psychological Services Center at 605-677-5354, provides counseling services at a discounted rate. Also, please remember that if you become upset by a question, you may stop at any time or choose not to answer it.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THIS STUDY?

You may not benefit personally from being in this study. However, in the future, other people might benefit from this study, as the information found may help to improve the understanding of mental health symptoms and stigma, and improve mental health treatment.

WHAT ARE THE ALTERNATIVES TO PARTICIPATING IN THIS STUDY?

If you are a USD student and choose not to participate in this study, you may earn course/extra credit in alternate ways. Please consult your instructor, who will provide you with comparable assignments that you may choose to complete (e.g., writing assignments, participation in other research experiments, etc.) or select a different study on SONA. If you are not a student, there are no known alternatives to participating in this study.

WILL IT COST ME ANYTHING TO BE IN THIS STUDY?

You will not have any costs for being in this research study.

WILL I BE PAID FOR PARTICIPATING?

You will not be paid for participating in this study. However, USD students can earn 3 SONA research credits for completing the survey. All participants also have the option to enter a raffle for a $25 Amazon Gift Card.

WHO IS FUNDING THE STUDY?

The University of South Dakota and the research team are receiving no payments from other agencies, organizations, or companies to conduct this research study.

ARE MY RECORDS CONFIDENTIAL?

The records of this study will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. In any report about this study that might be published, you will not be identified. Your study record may be reviewed by government agencies, Office of Human Subjects Protection and The University of South Dakota- Institutional Review Boards.

Any information that is obtained in connection with this study and that can be identified with you will remain confidential and will be disclosed only with your permission or as required by law. Confidentiality will be maintained through several means. First, survey responses are collected through a fully secure, encrypted system on the study website and are stored in a password protected database accessible only to Dr. Christopher R. Berghoff and his research staff. Second, survey responses and compensation information are never directly linked. This means there will be no way of connecting your compensation information and survey responses at the conclusion of the research study. Third, study data will be password protected, stored on secure servers provided by The University of South Dakota, and accessible by Dr. Christopher R. Berghoff and his personnel only.

If we write a report or article about this study, we will describe the study results in a summarized manner so that you cannot be identified.

IS THIS STUDY VOLUNTARY?

Your participation is voluntary. You may choose not to participate or you may discontinue your participation at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled. You may also choose to not respond to a survey item. Your decision whether or not to participate will not affect your current or future relations with The University of South Dakota.
